Given the full court press on TSCA framework rules, I suggest Tanya Mottley who isn't as involved in those rules and knows the formaldehyde issues.

Heads up that the American Home Furnishings Association (AHFA) requests an EPA person to speak to their Board next week. Their preferred slot is the afternoon of Tues, May 16, at the Ritz Carlton in Pentagon City. Apologies for getting this to you on short notice. The original invite went to the Administrator who delegated it to OCIR's intergovernmental folks. In lieu of the Administrator, AHFA prefers a senior person from OCSPP, particularly to talk about formaldehyde's status. Please let me know if someone is able to meet with them. Layne,

I hope all went well out west.

Has Nancy Beck started at OCSPP? The formaldehyde emissions rulemaking that we have been discussing falls under her office's purview and it would be great to connect.

I am not sure where our invitation to the Administrator stands for May 16th with the AHFA Board of Directors, but we could also host Nancy in his absence.

Thank you very much,

Bill
